

PRESS RELEASE 2011/ 2012

Plane Training NEWS 2011/ 2012 –

Plane Training continue to deliver high quality cabin crew and pilot training, throughout the airline industry and are all set to continue into 2012:

Pilot Training Jet Flight Training

Pilot Training: Plane Training continues to provide all SEP elements (Fire and Smoke, Emergency Evacuation to include Doors and Slide, Survival and Aviation Medicine) and Crew Resource Management training for ab initio pilots at the end of their 737 type rating course at Jet Flight Training

Cabin Crew and Pilot Instructor Training: Plane Training's accredited CRMIE Instructor Sarah Skelton Instructor travels to the Latvia to train the airline's in-house instructors

RYANAIR

Aviation Instructor Training: Company Director Sarah Skelton travels to Dublin to provide Instructional Techniques courses for Ryanair engineering instructors

Cabin Crew Initial and Conversion Training: Active Plane Training. Our sister company all set to continue to provide support training in 2012 for this fast expanding airline easyjet.

Sarah Skelton presents her paper on “an international approach to training standards” paper at the Royal Aeronautical Society’s annual Flight Crew Training Conference at Hamilton Place London in September

“An International Approach to Training Standards”

Cabin Crew Instructor Workshops: Plane Training deliver Instructor workshops to Loganair Instructors

Pilot Instructor Training: Plane Training return to Jet Airways in Mumbai in early 2012 to deliver further CRMI courses and provide the rapidly expanding operator with bespoke courseware for recurrent and upgrade CRM training

Pilot and Cabin Crew Training: Plane Training continue to provide CRM training at London City , Zurich and Geneva for this busy executive operator

Cabin Crew Instructor Training: Plane Training continue to provide Aviation Medicine Training to Tag Instructors